Salisbury Makes Bid for Council

Leo F. X. Salisbury, a Torrance tire dealer and former member of the city's Planning Commission, has announced his candidacy for the City Council.

Salisbury, a candidate in the 1966 elections, finished fifth among the contenders then. He received a unanimous AFL-CIO endorsement in that election.

Currently chairman of the Merchants' Sign Committee, Salisbury has been active in a number of civic and community organizations. He is a member of St. Margaret Mary Church, Little League, and Pop Warner football, as well as other youth organizations and activities.

Salisbury, also a director of the West Torrance Lion's Club, and his family live at 25804 Matfield Drive. He and his wife, Nan, are parents of five children.

A graduate of Loyola University, Salisbury holds a degree in political science. He also attended El Camino College.

Salisbury served as a member of General Douglas MacArthur's personal Honor Guard.

He said he will campaign on a platform based on broader community participation in local government, better communication between city officials and the public.

Scholarship Dance Set

The Esquires Stage Band, sponsored by the Esquire Music Foundation, will hold their eighth annual Scholarship Dance next Friday at the Western Avenue Country Club, 12009 S. Western Ave.

Highlight of the evening will be announcement of scholarship awards. The grants are financed by grants and donations to the foundation and from band performance fees.

NEW BLONDES

Like the newness of honey-pale wood tones? Try them on walls, too. Western hemlock is a rich but subtle champagne tone, as warming and cheerful as summer sun.

The dance is scheduled from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. and a $1 donation will be asked at the door.
